CLANTON-VANSON-COLEMAN HOUSE

Augusta, Richmond County, Georgia
503 Greene St.

Owner: Board of Health of Richmond County, Georgia.

Date of Erection: About 1850.

Present Condition: Good.

Number of Stories: Two main stories over basement half above ground, and attic behind entablature and under low sloping roof. House faces South.

Materials of Construction: Brick exterior walls, porch walls stucco over masonry supporting wood columns and wood entablature. Iron balustrades wrought and cast. Steps and porch floor of stone.

Other Existing Records: References John Hulse, Augusta, Ga.

Additional Data: Built for Turner Clanton, Senator. Metal balustrade between columns and flanking steps a combination of wrought and cast iron characteristic of the use of materials of the period. The house is symmetrical in plan except for one wing at the back left. It has a colonaded porch across the back, with two story square columns. Pitch roof with gable ends. All doorknobs and metal work of interior are of smooth silver plated. The woodwork is hand carved, originally red Bohemian side lights adorned the entrance door.

The house has been used for headquarters of County Board of Health since 1934.
